

JSTOR

Success checklist

From “Remote teaching and learning with JSTOR”

Ensure smooth access

- Understand your remote access methods
- Use the stable/proxied URL to create links from course sites and LibGuides
- Encourage students to register and connect a personal account to their institution

Discover and share great content

- Learn how students can build search skills with JSTOR
- Use Text Analyzer to find more content (learn more)
- Register and share readings from your workspace
- Explore Artstor's Public Collections
- JSTOR expanded access during COVID and Open Community Collections

Stay up to date

- Sign up for the JSTOR Daily newsletter
- Sign up for the librarian newsletter
- Sign up for a future webinar

Include information about JSTOR tools on course sites

- 2-minute Text Analyzer how-to video
- JSTOR Daily RSS feeds: add /feed/ after any category or tag link (for example - <https://daily.jstor.org/series/syllabus/feed/> or <https://daily.jstor.org/category/arts/art-art-history/feed/>)
- JSTOR's Research Basics: an online academic research skills course

Ask us!

- Email support@jstor.org or chat us on jstor.org