Angel Unawares

a postcard sent from prison delivered to a wrong address replied to by an angel with a handwritten note about memories of childhood visits to their relative at my prison in Moose Lake this made me feel human less other giving me hope of future memories the writer included pages printed from the web site of the League of MN Poets (to whom I had originally addressed my postcard) a year later my simple poem sent to the League of MN Poets surprisingly won their 1st Place/Grandview Award a dream came true all because a special angel replied to a postcard delivered to the right address.

THANK YOU.
